Savings and Loan Assoc. Cotes Four Per Cent Dividend

A dividend of four per cent on the investment and savings share accounts for the first six months this year was voted by the Board of Directors of the Albany Federal Savings and Loan Association at the regular June meeting of the Board.

According to Mr. Cyril C. Lotz, President of the Association, this is the 10th regular payment to its savings investors. In December of this year the association will have completed its tenth year in this city and at the same location, with an unblemished record of having always and regularly paid a high yield and of having paid every withdrawal "on demand" and "without notice."

In years past, when the interest rate on loans was 7 to 8.4 per cent dividends of 8 per cent were paid. Now, with interest rates ranging from 6 1/2 down to 5 per cent, a dividend of 4 per cent is considered high, the rate of the savings banks being 2 per cent less.

Today, the savings investor is looking for absolute security in his investments, a place to put his earnings and investment funds where they will be available when needed — but at all times safe. This is the security offered by institutions such as the Albany Savings and Loan Association, where the savings and investment accounts are insured against any loss or shrinkage up to $5,000 each by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an instrumentality of the United States Government.

The factor of safety is attested by the fact that the Albany Federal Savings and Loan Association several large accounts deposited by two of the largest fire insurance companies, as well as the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States through the Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

"Trader Horn" In Last Night

In its last showing tonight, "Trader Horn," vivid African adventure film will have as its supporting features, "An All American Sweetheart" and "Sam's Country Store," the latter a feature which is drawing bigger crowds every week.

Saturday, a romantic comedy, "She's Got Everything" will open with Ann Southern and Gene Raymond starring. Enlivening the feature with comedy will be Helen Broderick, Victor Moore and Parkyakarkis. Added to the bill will be "Cattle Raiders," a western cramed with tense drama and an exciting climax, a Walt Disney Cartoon, a news reel and Derby Night. The final chapter of "Tyler's Luck" will be shown at the afternoon matinee.

"Stand In," with that great actor of stage and screen, Leslie Howard starring, will be the feature Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with "Love, Honor or Behave" with Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane as second feature. Added will be a stage show and news reel.

Wednesday, Albany's favorite comedians, Jimmy Durante, comes to the screen in a college musical, "Start Cheering." "Double Danger" will vie with it for top honors, and added to the double attraction will be China Night. Of interest to the ladies is the fact that its not too late to start a new set of dishes.

Thursday and Friday, June 30 and July 1, Katherine Hepburn and Cary Grant will appear in "Bringing Up Baby," a hilarious comedy in which a studios professor, an eccentric society girl and a tiger battle for honors. Second feature will be "Blondes At Work."

"Banjo on My Knee" Opens at Cerrito

Little Jane Withers in her latest picture, "Checkers," together with Alice Faye in "Sally, Iren and Mary," closes at the new Cerrito Theatre tonight.

Opening tomorrow, for one day only is an ideal Saturday program, "Banjo On My Knee," with Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea, and Buck Jones in "Sudden Bill Dorn." "Banjo On My Knee" is a great story of a primitive people who dance on the levee to the throbbing rhythm of the mighty Mississippi. Here is a story of love that was like a raging flood, with Miss Stanwyck playing an unskissed river bride, hair savage, half sweet, while Joel McCrea plays the part of "Ernie" a rootin' tootin' he-man, loving despoily, hating hard and fighting savagely. Buck Jones' "Sudden Bill Dorn" is said to be one of his best pictures. Buck rides like nobody's business and needs no description for movie fans.

Both of these features will be shown at the kiddies matinee tomorrow, together with "Treasure Island" and two cartoons. At night, and also on Sunday, the ever-popular Ten-O-Win is added to the program.
